Please listen, everyone. I don't have a cell phone and I really want to have one.

The other day I went to SATY with my friend. When we left there, it ^{先日} began raining. We didn't have umbrellas with us. My friend called her mother by her cell phone, but I had to borrow hers. My friends exchange e-mails by their cell phones almost every day. I feel ^{寂しい} lonely because sometimes I don't know what they talk about.

I said to my mother, " I want a cell phone. Most of my friends have their own cell phones." She said, "I think ^{~のほどんど} junior high school students shouldn't have cell phones. They should worry about time and money." ^{~べきではない}

I don't know what she means. What should I do?
